

JOB DESCRIPTION
Director of High School Ministries
First Presbyterian Church of Midland, Texas (FPC)

Purpose: Work alongside the Discipleship Pastor, Director of Middle School Ministries and Director of Children's Ministries in a team approach to develop and deliver effective discipleship education targeted specifically to high school students in our community.

Accountability: The position is accountable to the Associate Pastor for Discipleship. Annual evaluations are provided by this pastor and subject to review by the Senior Pastor and the Personnel Ministry of the Session.

Responsibilities:

- Build and maintain relationships with local high school students, both church and unchurched.
- Recruit, develop and nurture a networked team of volunteers to invest time and energy in local high school students in FPC's efforts to carry out the youth ministry mission
- Equip adult volunteers and high school students in becoming life-long Disciples of Christ. Lead this equipping through opportunities in worship, scripture knowledge and application as well as loving relationships in fellowship.
- Create outreach opportunities for mission and service.
- Create regular and consistent opportunities for students to be involved in the life and ministry of the congregation
- Attend ministry group meetings as requested.
- Support and follow FPC operational policies and all initiatives of the Session (governing body)
- Ministry specific tasks as assigned

Qualifications:

- Be a faithful follower of Jesus Christ with a willingness to be helpful and supportive of others in their spiritual journeys.
- Know and commit your support to the FPC mission statement and values including Staff Covenant

Relationships: This position will require a close and positive daily working relationship with all members of FPC staff, FPC Covenant Partners, guests and vendors.

Please submit a resumé and cover letter to the First Presbyterian Church Search Committee via Gary Douglas at gdavdoug@sbcglobal.net.